Accelerate your leadership in 16 weeks with:

- Lumina Spark: Personality Assessment providing insights into your unique personality, your strengths, and how to leverage them to increase your impact.
- Personalized coaching: The two individual coaching sessions provide personalized attention and coaching tailored to your specific needs and goals, helping to overcome challenges, develop new skills, and achieve your full potential.
- Flexible learning: The program includes four video modules accessed at your pace, giving you the flexibility to learn and grow on your schedule.
- Group learning: The four group coaching sessions provide opportunities for peer learning and support, helping your gain insights from others and build valuable connections. We use a framework to maximize self-directed learning and allow the opportunity for you to bring real-time challenges and situations to these sessions, benefitting from the experience of other leaders and your coach.
- Comprehensive approach: The combination of individual coaching, video modules, and group coaching sessions provides a comprehensive approach to leadership development, addressing a wide range of skills and topics to develop a more effective leader.
- Maximum 10 students per cohort for individual attention and accountability.

Elevate Your Leadership Course

Includes two one-on-one coaching sessions, four group coaching sessions, and four video modules for self-directed learning.

- Improved leadership skills: Through one-on-one coaching and group coaching, participants can develop new skills and refine existing ones. This can help them become more effective leaders, communicate more effectively with their teams, and inspire their employees to do their best work.
- Increased self-awareness: Video learning and coaching can help participants become more aware of their strengths and weaknesses as leaders. This can lead to a better understanding of how their actions impact their team and organization.
- Enhanced decision-making skills: Through coaching and video learning, participants can learn how to make better decisions that align with their organization's goals and values.
- Improved communication skills: Effective communication is key to being a successful leader. One-on-one and group coaching can help participants develop the skills they need to communicate clearly and effectively with their teams.
- Increased confidence: By receiving individualized coaching and support, participants can increase their confidence as leaders, can help them take on new challenges and lead their teams with greater conviction.
- Better teamwork: Group coaching can help participants learn how to work more effectively with others, resolve conflicts, and build stronger relationships with their colleagues.
- Improved organizational performance: By developing their leadership skills, participants can help improve the performance of their organization. This can lead to increased productivity, better employee engagement, and greater success in achieving organizational goals.

Overall, a leadership development course that includes one-on-one coaching, group coaching, and video learning can have a transformative impact on participants, helping them become more effective leaders and achieve greater success in their careers.
